COCKSPUR CUP - ROUND 1

South Hampstead 222-8 – Gerrards Cross 224-2

Gerrards Cross won by 8 wickets

Gerrards Cross reached the second round of the Cockspur Cup on Sunday with an eight-wicket thrashing of South Hampstead.

Choosing to bat first, Hampstead posted a competitive score of 222 off their allotted 45 overs. James Williams (50) and Paul Sylvester (48) provided the bulk of the runs and they received useful support from Fahad Mehboob (37) and Amil Chackravarty (28). Mark Wright was the chief destroyer taking 3-35 from nine overs.

The Cross had little difficulty in knocking off the required runs. Alan Duncan led the way with an undefeated 106 and Wright continued his excellent form with an unbeaten 62 as the Cross reached their target with three overs to spare.
