Gerrards Cross' Home Counties Premier League status will be decided on the last day of the season after rain, once again, ruined their chance of victory.

In a match which suffered several rain delays, Farnham Royal struggled to score runs on a damp pitch against some excellent Cross bowling. They posted 154-9 off 44 overs which would have been a whole lot worse had not been for Javed Khan's 57. Paul Muchall was the pick of the bowlers taking 4-34 off 19 overs.

The Cross had a minimum of 36 overs to chase down the victory target and were confident of doing so, until the rain returned just as the players were making their way to middle. After a heavy, ten minute downpour the ground was saturated and with the clock ticking a massive cleanup operation began. It was all in vain, however, as the cut-off time arrived and the umpires deemed the ground unfit.

It was not all bad news for the Cross as they have now moved out of the relegation zone after Thame Town's defeat to Dinton. A win at Reading next week will ensure the Cross' survival, otherwise they will be hoping other results go their way.
